

THESE ARE THE TIMES

(c) 2020 Jennifer Comeau, Earth Ally

These are the times we have been made for;

Believe you've got what it takes

Join the river of unity to restore

Love and healing to the human race;

Hear the urgings of a natural world.

Your still, small voice too

[They] tell us – Stop now; hands on your heart

Remember what you once knew

Chorus: These are the times we have been made for;

Believe you've got what it takes

Join the river of unity to restore

Love and healing to the human race; love and healing to the human race

Ears of my ears hear differently[1]

Eyes of my eyes now see

If even – One of us is suffering

The waters of life won't flow free

Bridge: Here's where we open what's dammed up inside

Here's where we unite and stand for all life!
